Obituary.

The subject of this sketch, Elzie Creel Reynolds was born in Adair county, Ky., June 16th, 1854, and died at his late home in Amarillo Tex., May 3, 1912.

He left Kentucky in 1875 and went to Missouri where he lived for 27 years. He was married to Nellie Lucas Feb., 14, 1878.

To this union were born six children, two of them having gone on before. The remaining four are married and were at their father's bedside when the end came. In February 1902, he moved with his family to Oklahoma where he lived for three years. In 1905 he moved to Amarillo, Tex., where he had since lived.

He was a kind an affectionate husband and father. For many years he was an active worker in the church seldom missing a service. He was for a number of years superintendent of Sunday School and was Steward of the church for a long time. He kept up his church attendance as long as he was able to attend and his love for the church never wavered.

His sickness began last September with heart trouble and then in December he began to be bothered with stomach trouble, after a short time he seemed to improve and was thought to be getting better but in January he had a paralytic stroke from which he never fully recovered.

The doctors advised that he take a trip as soon as the weather was nice so he and wife were making preparation to visit Kentucky, but a few days before they were to start he was taken with stomach sickness which baffled the doctors. He suffered a great deal for two weeks and then gradually got weaker until on May 3, 1912. He passed from suffering into rest.
